

1. Basis principle	Social Security Code (Code de la sécurité sociale), Book IV. Other special systems, in particular for the agricultural sector.
2. Financial compensation	Yes
3. Medical treatment responsibilities	Yes
4. Prevention responsibilities	Yes
5. Research in OS&H issues responsibilities	As CNAMTS is in charge of prevention, it has the possibility to finance some institutions (in particular INRS) for research in OS&H issues
6. Rehabilitation of victims of occupational injuries responsibilities	Yes Functional rehabilitation with provision of benefits in kind and cash benefits. Professional retraining with a view to professional reintegration, with coverage of all kinds of expenses, including costs connected with training, maintenance costs, accommodation costs, transport costs and costs for maintaining cash benefits.
7. Specific insurance against accidents at work and occupational diseases	Yes
8. Is this insurance compulsory?	Yes
9. Contributions	Contributions from employers
10. People covered	Through the CNAMTS' scheme: workers of industry, retail and service sectors Workers of other sectors are covered by other schemes There is no specific insurance scheme for self-employed people
11. Is the insurance different for accidents at work and for occupational diseases?	No
12. Risks covered	Accidents at work, occupational diseases (mixed system), commuting accidents
13. Others	The Fund was founded by law of 30 October 1946

Information provided by CNAMTS-DRP (Professional risks Department) – Nov. 2012